

Tuesday, March 9: 11:30 am until 12:00 pm; Virtual/Rm 313

Jennifer L. Shoup Class of 1995

Jennifer Shoup is a frequent soloist and chamber musician who performs throughout the United States and abroad. She has been a featured soloist with the National Orchestras of Chile and Costa Rica and presented solo recitals for the Piccolo Spoleto Festival, Sigma Alpha Iota National Convention, Ohio Music Teachers Association and numerous university Artist Series across the United States.

Jennifer received a Master of Music degree in Piano Performance from Carnegie Mellon University and a Bachelor of Music degree in Performance from the University of Dayton. Additional studies took place in Vienna, Austria and at the Belgais Center for the Arts (Portugal). She has worked with a diverse range of artists including Emanuel Ax, Maria Joao Pires, and Grammy award-winning composer, Lucy Simon.

Jennifer has taught for the prestigious Carnegie Mellon Preparatory School and as an adjunct faculty member for the University of Dayton. She currently owns and teaches at The Piano Preparatory School, annually serving more than four hundred families in the Dayton area.

Jennifer is married to Carroll High School 1987 graduate, Nick Miller, and they have two sons.

Carroll High School Activities: Class Officer, Student Council, National Honor Society, French Honor Society, Key Club, Write-On, Ohio Math League, French Club, Drama Club, Muse Machine, Band, Mu Alpha Theta, S.A.D.D., and Choir