Ashley (Ruef) Graham Class of 2001

Ashley D. Graham is the Division Client Relationship Manager for the Midwest Division of Merrill Lynch Wealth Management. She supports a team responsible for delivering industry superior client service, covering twenty markets in fifteen midwestern states.

Ashley has been with Merrill Lynch for fifteen years. She began her career as an Administrative Assistant in the Ohio Valley Complex before moving into a Support Staff Supervisor role and then entering the Merrill Lynch leadership program. Ashley spent time as an Administrative Manager, covering risk and compliance. She then shifted to become a Client Relationship Manager, focused on enhancing the client experience, in both the Greater Dallas and Greater Maryland Markets, before moving to her Divisional role. A highlight of Ashley's career is her nomination and selection for the 2011 David Brady Award, recognizing individuals who go above and beyond as employees and in our community.

Ashley graduated from Xavier University (Cincinnati, Ohio) where she earned a Bachelor Degree in Communications. While at Merrill Lynch, she obtained a Master Degree in Organizational Leadership from Gonzaga University. She also holds her Series 7, 66, 9, 10, 31, and 3 financial licenses.

Ashley resides in Glen Ellyn, Illinois with her husband, Orion, and their four children: Gracen, Hunter, Jasper, and Karson. Ashley is an Ironman triathlon finisher and is nearing completion of a goal to run a marathon in each of the 50 United States.

Ashley's favorite Carroll memories are Spirit Days.
